CUENCA WALKING TOUR

DESCRIPTION

Monumental Cuenca Guided Tour. We will discover the monumental rich heritage and historical significance of Cuenca, which was declared UNESCO World Heritage Site. Cuenca, 'the Hanged City' is one of the most remarkable cities in Spain for its great intangible and material heritage. The World Heritage hanged city is a city built in a stretch of land between two gorges, the Júcar and Huécar river gorges, which creates a peerless natural frame for an urbanism that remains unchanged over time. These canyons hold thousands of years of geological morphology given that they have been little by little carved by these rivers forming huge stone structures that make us feel insignificant in comparison.

Visit to Cuenca Cathedral. Cuenca Cathedral stands out for being the first Gothic style cathedral built in Spain, by order of Alfonso VIII. Even though the visitors might be tricked by its façade, it is amazing to look inside a church whose building process lengthens from the 12th Century to the Baroque style of its most recent chapels. Everyone knows the Hanged Houses of Cuenca, which are a good example of popular architecture of Cuenca whose balconies invite you to simply observe the abyss and have become the watch and signal of the city. San Pablo Bridge, designed by the Eiffel School, proposes a nice walk for the audacious and an adventure for the vertiginous ones, but everyone who walk through it feel the thrill of being in one of the best places of the city. The town centre is full of churches, stately houses and old convents that, even nowadays, preserve the tradition of prayer. Nevertheless, the Castle district is where the visitor can really feel being at the top of the city, looking from its viewpoints to the emptiness, to a huge fall towards the canyons leaning out a breathtaking unprecedented depth. Considering everything this city has and gladly offers to the visitors, let us state: Cuenca is unique!
